Nancy Swenson understands how to take care of businesses and families. With over 30 years of experience in family business, banking, politics, and education, she has used her skills and knowledge to help guide and educate those she has served. Nancy now brings these skills and passion to the area of real estate.

An Iowa native, Nancy is a graduate of The University of Sioux Falls, Who'sWho Among College Students, Former Mrs. South Dakota and mother of 3. Having fallen in love with South Dakota she remained here in Sioux Falls to pursue her dreams.

Those dreams included 5 years with First National Bank in Sioux Falls in the Commercial, Agricultural and Real Estate Loan department, serving on the Center for Women Advisor Board at the University of Sioux Falls, Advisory Board for the Catholic Schools System, 4-H Leader, volunteer and county chair, Executive Director of the Minnehaha County Republican Party, past State Secretary for the Republican party, Minnehaha County Committee Women for the Republican Party, Governor's Mansion Design Committee, East River Campaign Director for Mark Barnett for Governor, Field Representative for John Thune, Bill Janklow and Mike Rounds.

Nancy understands the concerns of business as well as those of individual families. Her 20 year marriage to a family business owner in the plumbing industry along with running their small farm east of Sioux Falls has given her intimate knowledge into the concerns and dreams of families. Let her guide and help you turn your dreams into reality.
